

Benefits of student-centered approach:

- Develops communication and social skills
- Refine thinking and reasoning skills
- Stimulates search for other ways of evaluation
- Assists students transfer skills to the real world
- Motivates the students to learn without external rewards